Palo Alto Unit 503

Volume XLVI, Issue 2

February, 2008

SCREAM, SHOUT and YODEL, HERE COME THE SWISS!

Smile! Cheers! Say Cheese! because it's time again for the players' favorite event, Swiss Teams. The Unit will sponsor a contest on Sunday, February 24 at 12:45 p.m. at the Bridge Center. This is the game where everyone wins. Form a team and challenge for masterpoint awards.

Hello! Hello! Alert all 49er and 99ers! There will be a separate section for players at this level. To help the game get started on time, please use the sign-up lists at your local club. List a full or partial team or contact the Unit Game Chair, Mike Atherton at (650) 968-8679 or michaelatherton@sbcglobal.net. Another option is to phone the Bridge Center to request a sign-up for your team.

Everyone, remember to bring your smiles for a happy bridge experience.

Masterpoint Race 2007: WHEELER DRIVES TO THE FRONT!

With a final burst of speed, David Wheeler overtook the previous leader, John Stanczak to capture the 2007 Winner's Trophy, awarded for earning the most masterpoints in Unit events. The Non-Life Master Award went to Don Ehrman. Trophy chair Ginger Herrick presented the awards at the January Unit game. She also congratulated previous Non-Life Master winners whose names appear on an updated plaque.

The final standings and their points were: D. Wheeler, 17.29; L. Spaeth, 16.43; J. Stanczak, 16.02

NLM: D. Ehrman, 8.08, F. Lubais, 7.86

UNIT 503 EDUCATION FUND TOPS $15,000

Thanks to 53 members, our new Fund topped $15,000 at year-end. The ACBL Foundation is quite impressed with our commitment and energy to create educational programs to introduce bridge in our community and foster the interest and education in bridge among our current members.

Of particular note, one member made a donation in honor of her mentor, the very type of program that fits nicely into the mission of the ACBL Educational Foundation.

Program planning is now underway, and we need volunteers to step forward and reach out to our local schools, senior communities and the community at large to introduce the game and begin new programs.

Please contact Alan Cummings, 650-619-6664 or alan.cummings@stanford.edu and get involved. Here is an opportunity to promote the game we enjoy so much.

UNIT AFFAIRS

Coming Soon - an Updated Directory: The Palo Alto Members and Friends Directory is printed yearly in the spring and is given free to all Unit 503 members. If your name, phone or email has changed in the past year and you have not already done so, please contact Lori Spaeth, (650) 947-9370, or spaeth@sbcglobal.net or complete the form at your local club before February 15.

New Furniture: Thanks to a good friend of our Unit the bridge center now has new oak computer furniture for the director's work area, two bookcases and two white boards.

Cardinal DBC: The 49ers are coming to the Cardinal Duplicate Bridge Club which meets Thursday evenings at 7 p.m. at Stanford University (see back page for location). Director Eric Mayefsky is happy to announce that it will hold a 49er game in addition to the current open flight. Our outgoing President wrote Eric a note congratulating him on his new venture.

A Multitasker Par Excellence: Our Unit has been blessed with a wonderful group of game directors. Without taking away from any of them, Dave Bernstein reports we've all been dazzled by the multi-task capabilities of Will Watson. He can serve lunch, run three sections in parallel with different movements, fill in for late players (more than once in two sections), make rulings with knowledge and consideration, keep the boards and players moving, and post the scores (of all three sections) almost as the last trick is played.

Given this manifest reputation, it was a shock to see him falter in a recent Tuesday (3 section) game. As he was moving completed boards to the lower tables, he came to our table, hat metaphorically in hand and with downcast eyes, and confessed, "I couldn't get you a board because it was in her lap."

Toys from Us: The Unit received a very nice letter from the City of Palo Alto thanking us for the donation from the Unit's 3rd annual holiday toy drive. You're welcome to read it on the Bridge Center bulletin board.

THANKS: A big one goes to Martie Moore, Unit Game chair for the last two years. There has been a huge increase in not only the number of players but especially new and 99er members.

Invitation from the Kibitzer: Do you have a favorite bridge hand? A funny story? Info about an interesting player? A bridge system? Whatever? The editors invite you to submit it to us. We would like to have more content from more writers. So here's your chance to get your ideas in print. If you don't want your name included, it's OK. We'll just add anonymous. Send anything and everything to either tancke@sbcglobal.net or kelly.marian@gmail.com or put it in the Kibitzer file in the Unit cabinet at the Bridge Center.

Frances Miller

By Mary Van Tamelen

She doesn't own the Miller Brewing Company, as her frequent partner claims. She isn't Greta Garbo, as she has claimed. Nor can she speak fluent Japanese. All of those claims are manifestations of her sense of humor, her desire "to make people laugh." Frances Miller, our most recent nonagenarian, spoke the other day about "how great my life is."

It might be bridge or it might be the good fortune to have had an ideal job that produces the happy outlook she has. Frances is eager to credit the two big influences in her life - music and bridge.

Her love of music began as she listened to the Texaco production of the Metropolitan Opera over the radio as a child, hearing Jan Pierce sing from La Boheme, and being profoundly moved. Much later, after waiting in line for a ticket to the Royal Ballet for her daughter who was studying ballet, she told the ticket agent, "I'd like a job here." He hired her, and soon she became the manager of the subscription service—according to her, the best job in the world. She got to see all the operas and concerts and visiting musicians that came to New York, and at the same time used her people skills, working out specific problems people had with their tickets or transportation or exchanges.

At the same time, she managed to fit in bridge games every evening. She had learned the game at the age of 12, loved it, found duplicate bridge after a shaky beginning, a real challenge. She never joined ACBL; she claims that the challenge itself is better than the accumulation of points.

When she resigned her job at the age of 71—computers had taken over and removed the joy of dealing directly with people—she then was able to play bridge every day and every night, and loved it more than ever.

Frances was born in Philadelphia, attended Temple University and studied business, but didn't like it. "All I can do is talk," she says. She lived with her husband in Silver Springs, Maryland, near Washington, where a friend invited her to all the embassy parties—contributing to her "great life." When her husband died six years ago, she moved to California to be near one of her two daughters. She has six granddaughters and eight great grandchildren, scattered from the east coast to Vietnam. Everyone came to celebrate her 90th birthday in April—more joy for her "great life."

SYMPATHY

The Unit officers and members extend their sincere condolences to the family and friends of Clara Sideris, who was a long time member of the Unit, John Dellis, who regularly played on Friday morning at the Bridge Center and Ditter Peschcke-Koedt, who enjoyed Easybridge.
